Pentecost

Today the Church celebrates the great feast of Pentecost, the gift of the Holy Spirit given to the disciples to strengthen them to preach the gospel to all the world, 50 days after Jesus' death and resurrection and 10 days after his Ascension to heaven. How comforting to know that Jesus did not leave his followers orphaned as he left them, but gave them the "promise of the Father" (Acts 1:4) that would "lead them to all truth" (Jn 16:13). Consider the transformation of the Apostles, converted from cowards into heroes, no longer denying him by the fire, or cowering in fear in the upper room, but instead professing faith in him without fear, professing Christ boldly (Acts 2:14-35)! "We must obey God rather than men." (Acts 5:29).

This courage that they received and the ability to speak new languages was beyond their natural capacity. It was God working through them in a mighty way. Their zeal unabashedly on display for all to see, converted thousands to the faith. So many hearing and seeing them followed the Lord.

This outpouring of the Holy Spirit was not a one time event, Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would remind the apostles of all he had told them and he promised to be with them to the end of the age (Mt 28:20). This promise made to the Apostles is made also to us, remember that he prayed for us at the Last Supper, "I pray not only for them but for those who will believe in me through their words" (Jn 17:20). Jesus certainly intended for us also to receive the spirit and to act under its influence to bring others to Christ.

We are the Apostles of the second decade of the 21st century in this part of the Merrimack Valley. It is our commission to spread this message of love and resurrection, to be true messengers of the gospel to all we meet, at work, at home and in the market place. The ministry of evangelizing is not left to the priests and sisters, or to a small group of activists in the parishes, it is the call of everyone to spread the gospel. As we go out in the coming week make an appeal to one person who may have grown lax in prayer and mass attendance, to even one person who may be skeptical, even the skeptic could be one invitation away from a transformed life. Let us not be like the disciples gazing towards the sky as Jesus ascended (Acts 1:10) but let us heed the advice of the Angels and cease looking up and rather look out to the many who are like sheep without a shepherd and let us go and make disciples of all nations (Mt 28:19).

Happy Pentecost,

Fr. Bill
